| Tyler Jo Gaines             |   | Conducted by: Sean Maguire  | January 23, 2019  |
|-----------------------------|---|---|---|
| URL / Image                 | Question  | Response / Observation  | Notes   |
| https://seanmany.github.io/ | What would you say is the primary purpose of this page?       | Effectively, an online resume   |   |
|                             | Where would you go if you wanted to get in contact with me?   | Clicked on the contact tab in the nav bar   | Also mentioned that he would scroll down to the very bottom of the page. Expects that to be the common place to put contact info. |
|                             | Where would you go to learn more about the games I have made? | Scrolled to the section that read "Projects"  | Commented that the desriptions were not as dynamic and wanted to be able to click on the thumnails to play or download the game.  |
|                             | What elements of this page appeal to you the most?            | The minimal and simplistic design   |   |
|                             | What elements of this page appeal to you the least?           | Put a more compelling photo of you in the site. Something that shows personality. Also some landing page that shows what it is that you do, for example a small game. | The photo is also a bit smile in the mobile view.   |
|                             |   |   |   |
|                             |   |   |   |
|                             |   |   |   |
|                             |   |   |   |
|                             |   |   |   |
|                             |   |   |   |